

Fixation: the white dots (fixation dots) should be in the same location (center of the pupil or slightly nasal) in both eyes; pupils should be a consistent color (red or dark brown) with no white tones.

iScreen Home Page

Patient Information

Name/ID....	Lisa Lee
DOB.....	11/4/2015
Dr/Site....	Little Peoples Daycare

Acquisition Complete - Save? (Y / N)

Horizontal Flash

Vertical Flash

Flash: Ready
Images Not Sent: 7

Capacity:
33/2000
Fri Apr 5 2016 09:45:33

Fixation Problem:

The child is looking up a little.

The white fixation dot is not in same place in each eye,
and the pupil is not consistent in color.